BRITISH APPEAL FOR PROTECTION

United States May Send Troops Into Endangered Territory.

BACKS PRESIDENT.

Former Ambassador Calls Upon Members of All Parties to Support Wilson in His Mexican Policy.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Practically pledged to protect the British and American oil properties along the east coast of Mexico, the government of the United States is hoping that the obligation will not imperil the pacific policy of President Wilson. It is realized, however, that to protect these properties it may become necessary to land marines, and realizing this the administration has left it to the discretion of Admiral Fletcher to do this whenever it might sem to him imperative.

Attention is directed to the saving of the Mexican City of Tuxpam from the constitutionalists, who have threatened to turn loose the contents of the great oil tanks and cause a fire imperiling thousands of foreigners.

Admiral Fletcher is reported to have ordered Rear Admiral Boush at Tuxpam to land marines and machine guns, if necessary, to prevent attack.

That a landing of armed forces by the United States might precipitate armed resistance is a fear expressed in official circles. Should the contingency arise, however, care would be taken by Admiral Fletcher and the State Department to make it plain that the marines were landed not as an invading force but as a guard, even though it might be necessary to proceed some distance into the interior.

That the United States would have the moral support of Great Britain in the event of such action becoming necessary as indicated by the fact that Lord Cowdray, owner of large English oil properties threatened, has appealed not to the English government, but to the United States for protection

New York, Nov. 21.—"I appeal to the heart and to the head of every gentleman present in this chamber; in this trying Mexican situation that there is but one duty for all of us, and that is to stand by the President of the United States"

This sentiment uttered by Joseph H Choate, former ambassador to Great Britain, Republican, at the 145th anniversary of the New York Chamber of Commerce here last night, brought roars of cheers and was commended today as one of the most patriotic expressions by any public man in New York since the assassination of Madero and the rise of Huerta brought Mexico into the limelight

TO BECOME EPISCOPALIAN.

Gives Up Ministry in The Methodist Church to Embrace Another Faith.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 21.—It develops that Rev. Walter G. Parker, whose resignation from the Methodist ministry was announced in Danville, was formally admitted into the Episcopal church at St. James in this city Tuesday night, November 11, and is already pursuing a course at the Theological Seminary near Alexandria preparatory to ordination as a deacon next June, when he will be given a charge in the Episcopal ministry.

It has also become known that Dr. Parker, who came to Park Place Methodist Church, Richmond, three years ago from a charge in Norfolk, has been leaning towards the Episcopal church for some time. While at Park Place it is said that he seriously contemplated donning the surplice and cassock and strongly favored a vested choir. Last fall he was transferred to Farmville at the annual conference.

For several years Dr. Parker was chaplain of the Second Virginia regiment. He is a native of Nansemond.

President Wilson sent to the Senate yesterday the nomination of Henry M. Pindell as Ambassador to Russia. Mr. Pindell is the publisher of the Peoria Journal, and has gained considerable notoriety on account of an alleged agreement that he should have the Russian Ambassadorship for a year, to enjoy a brief social regime, and then surrender it to the State Department.

At a full meeting of the Senate banking and currency committee yesterday it was agreed to turn the currency legislation over to the Senate, reporting a disagreement and submitting two bills next Saturday. This action was taken on motion of Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, by a vote of 7 to 5, after the members of the committee had voted down a motion by Senator O'Gorman to hold further conferences to reach an agreement on some features of the bill.

The mother said she could not see the little ones made targets for the fingers of scorn; could not stand to see them live lives under a cloud, for the babies were born after Mrs. Johnson had been separated from her husband. She killed them with a knife shortly after they were born, and buried them in her back yard.

CARS FALL INTO LAKE.

Disaster to Crack Flyer by Sinking of Tracks—Wires Down and Facts Are Meagre.

Montreal, Can., Nov. 21.—The Imperial limited, crack train of the Canadian Pacific Railroad, was wrecked near Heron's Bay, Ontario, early today. It plunged into Lake Superior and the engineer is known to have been drowned. Other details are lacking.

The Imperial limited runs from Montreal to Vancouver.

Early reports declared many passengers had been killed or injured. Confirmation was lacking. The Imperial limited was made up of twelve cars. Two were sleepers.

Port Arthur, Ontario, Nov. 21.—All wires are down in the vicinity of Heron's Bay, Ontario when the Canadian Pacific transcontinental train, the Imperial limited, running from Montreal to Vancouver, was wrecked. From the few details that have reached here it is understood the train went into Lake Superior, owing to a sinking of the tracks. It is reported that the fireman was killed but no passengers are reported hurt.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.

Another Large Congregation in Second Presbyterian Church Last Night.

Rev. Dr. W. J. McMillan, of Baltimore, preached another forceful sermon in the Second Presbyterian Church last night. He took for his text the eleventh chapter of Luke verses 21 and 22—"When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace. But when a stronger than he comes upon him and overcomes him, he taketh of him all his armor wherein he trusted and divideth his spoils."

The speaker said in this parable several practical truths are taught. The personality and power of Satan are clearly revealed. First, Satan, a strong man, armed. Second, his throne the human heart. Third, every room in the palace of the heart occupied by Satan—the intellect, memory, conscience and will all under his domination. The sinner cannot free himself, and therefore, a greater power must be found. The Conquerer is Jesus, the mighty to save, who destroys the works of the adversary.

Many persons signed cards last night announcing their desire to reconcentrate themselves, and six confessed Christ.

Dr. McMillan will probably preach his last sermon in the series this evening on "Why I am Not a Christian."

Regular services will be held on next Sunday morning and evening.

The Norfolk and Western Railway has now in operation 38 miles of double track between Lamberts Point and Petersburg, and 98 miles has been completed between Lynchburg and Petersburg. A double-track steel bridge is being constructed at High Bridge, east of Farmville. It will be 12 feet higher that the old structure and will cost $500,000.

CHILDREN ENTERTAIN.

Enjoyable Evening at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Knight.

A very pleasant evening was spent yesterday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Julian D. Knight, when invited guests to the number of 60 were present at their handsome home at 527 south Fairfax street as playmates of his little ones. The parlor was tastefully arranged with palms and cut flowers, while the spacious dining room, brilliant in pink and white, added beauty to the scene. The girls were dressed their prettiest and the boys wore their catchy smiles. A conkey party was on the program, and the first prize to the girl was a set of gold pins, and was won by Miss Norma Smith. The next prize was a gold scarf pin to the boy, and was won by Roger Jacobs. After enjoying the singing and games, the young folks were invited to supper and Mr. and Mrs. Knight looked to the comfort of all. Fancy crackers, oysters and bouillon were served. As side dishes cakes, cream, and fruit were next in order. A neat cap, known as the favorite, was used at the table, which when opened was a nice trick and guaranteed service to all present. At the close of the pleasant evening a souvenir—a pink and white bag containing choice fruits and candies—was presented each little one. A pleasant incident was the visit of Mr. Knight's aged mother—now 80 years old—who, though feeble, entered into the glad season with a light heart. All present pronounce the party one of the best the First ward is capable of, and the old First has witnessed some good ones. A great many mothers of the little ones honored the occasion with their presence.

BORROWED MONEY SUBJECT TO TAX

Far-Reaching Decision Is Handed Down by Court of Appeals.

ALL IS TO BE LISTED.

Practice of Many Commissioners of Revenue in Deducting Indebtedness Not Lawful.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 21.—Al capital invested in business, whether it be borrowed or not, is subject to taxation, accrding to a decision handed down yesterday by the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. Taxation on capital, the opinion holds, is not to be regulated by the announced capital stock of a corporation or by the cash capital of a proprie or in the case of an individual business, but it is to be based on the actual amount of capital, actually a ventured for the business. The case in point is that of the Bridgewater Manufacturing Co., against Funkhouser, Commissioner of the Revenue from the Circuit Court of Rockingham county. In the opinion written by Judge George M. Harrison, and in which the other judges concur, the decision of the lower court is affirmed.

The Bridgewa er Manufacturing Company brought an action in the Circuit Court of Rockingham County against the Commissioner of the Revenue, asking the court to correct alleged erroneous assessment of taxes, which relief was denie by the lower court, and that decision stands affirmed.

The complainant is a corporation with offices in Bridgewater, Rockingham county, operating two flouring mills and a woolen mill at Bridgewater. The company paid 1912 taxes assessable against it as an incorporated company by the State Corporation Commission, but it did not report anything and was not assessed with anything on the personal property assessment books for that year.

At the November term of the Rockingham County Circuit Court Judge T. N. Haas summoned a special grand jury to examine the tax returns, as required by section 578 of the Code of Virginia.

Among the many persons summoned before the special tax grand jury was the manager of the Bridgewater Manufacturing Company, who testified that the total running capital of the company invested in the business on July 1, 1912, was $16,703, and of this sum $14,000 was borrowed money.

The grand jury directed the commisioner of the revenue for Ashby district, Rockingham county, to assess the company for a capital of $16,703, the amount it had in its business on July 1st, the witness having been unable to state the exact amount engaged in the business on February 1, the official taxing date. The aggregate tax imposed was $229.64, being $58.45 state, $66.81 county, and $104.38 district taxes.

In the opinion Judge Harrison first waives aside as without merit a series of technical objections as to the manner in which the assessment was made, the date of the assessment, and other alleged irregularities in the method of procedure.

GIRL COLLAPSES ON STAND.

She is Prosecuting Witness in a White Slavery Case.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 21.—Hovering between life and death from the effects of bichloride of mercury poisoning, Ruth Steele, alleged victim of white slavery, collapsed in the United States Court here yesterday afternoon while testifying against George Jordan, on trial for alleged violation of the Mann act.

After waiting for an hour, while physicians worked with the 19-year-old witness, Judge Benjamin F. Keller adjourned court until today and ordered the girl carried to a hotel.

The Steele girl testified that Jordan took her from Ironton, O., to Ashland, Ky., and from there to Charleston. She said Jordon paid her transportation and other expenses.

VIRGINIA NOT TO BE A RENO

Non-Residents Cannot Remove to This State for Divorces.

DECISION AFFIRMED.

Warning Given by Court of Appeals That Old Dominion is Not Place to Seek Decrees.

Richmond, Nov. 21.—In the case of Yates against Yates, in which the Circuit Court of Rockingham county is affirmed, warning is given by the Supreme Court that Virginia is not to be made at Reno for parties seeking divorce. The divorce in this instance did not believe that the comcourt did not believe that the complainant had established a residence in Virginia for any other purpose than to obtain the decree, and in an opinion yesterday by Judge Keith, the trial court is affirmed.

John C. Yates filed suit on the ground of desertion. His wife was a non-resident of Virginia, and in lieu of personal service of process, notice was served by advertisement. The lower court declined to entertain jurisdiction, and dismissed the case.

Yates claims a residence at Harrisonburg, and states in his affidavit that he is a Pullman conductor. It is stated in the opinion to be a matter of common knowledge that only one Pullman car goes in and out of Harrisonburg daily—that being operated between Harrisonburg and Washington. Yates selected Harrisonburg as a place of residence in December, and in January filed suit for divorce. In the papers he gives Washington as the present place of his wife's residence, but notwithstanding the fact that the address was known, proceeded by order of publication, though the court says it would have been cheaper and quite as effective to have had personal service through a District of Columbia officer.

"It appears," says the opinion "that the petitioner sought this jurisdiction in order to get as far from his wife as possible, and of concealing his suit from her, and that he came to this jurisdiction for the purpose of bringing this suit, and that he has not established a bona fida residence in this State. The decision of the lower court in refusing jurisdiction is affirmed."

"TO RAISE FIERY CROSS."

Excitement at Labor Meeting in London Last Night.

London, Nov. 21.—The first appearance as an orator in London of James Larkin, head of the Transport Workers' Union of Dublin, or "King Larkin," as he is now dubbed by his adherents here, led to wild scenes of disorder at Albert Hall last night, where several thousands had gathered to hear him.

When Larkins was liberated a week ago from Mount Joy prison, where he was serving a seven months' term for sedition, he announced that he was going to England "to raise the fiery cross," and he predicted a general strike throughout Great Britain.

A large body of students from the college connected with London University made an organized attempt to upset the meeting, and fierce rioting both outside and inside the hall followed.

Many persons were injured before the meeting was able to proceed, for the students successfully stormed the entrance and gained admission to the hall. There further fighting took place and sticks and umbrellas were freely used. Fireworks were let off amid scenes of pandemonium, and, for a time, there was danger of a panic.

The organist continued playing, however, and the audience began, singing socialist songs, to which the students responded by singing, "God Save the King," and "Rule Britannia."

When order was partly restored, Larkin made his speech, which was mainly a denunciation of the government in connection with the Dublin strike.

STOLEN GOODS FOUND

Four White Men in Custody--Warrants Issued for the Arrest Others

The Alexandria police force, together with detectives from the Pinkerton detective agency and special agents of the Washington-Southern Railway, made a big haul yesterday afternoon when they discovered the hiding place of a large quantity of cigars which had been stolen from freight cars, made four arrests and have two men under surveillance.

The cigars were stolen from a car of the Washington-Southern Railway, in the Potomac yards, on Wednesday night. They were traced to this city, and yesterday at 1 o'clock a search warrant was secured from Commonwealth Attorney Brent to search the saloon of George S. Finch, at 435 North Royal street. For some time special agents of the railway companies have been located in Alexandria, making investigation of the car robberies which have grown bolder recently despite the passage of the Carlin law by Congress making the robbery of a car, engaged in interstate traffic, a serious offense.

Chief Goods, Policemen Ferguson, and Norris, of the Alexandria department, John W. Erb, superintendent of the Pinkerton National Detective agency, of Richmond, Va., Capt. A. G. Smith, of Philadelphia, a Pinkerton man, and A. F. Kennedy, chief special agent of the Washington Southern Railway, were in the party that made the raid on the saloon. They found that the proprietor, George S. Finch, was ill in bed, and the business was in charge of Edward Waters. A search of the premises revealed 186 boxes of high grade cigars, amounting to 4,650, which were in sacks, some of which were hidden in an outhouse. The goods were brought to the station house.

Later in the day warrants were secured against George S. Finch, proprietor of the saloon, Edward Waters, the bar keeper, Edward Harrison, a well-known young white man John Peverill, a young white man, who has recently served a jail term for robbing freight cars, Charles Sorrell, and James Mason, a negro. Finch was not arrested, as he was unable to leave his home, but Waters, Harrison and Sorrel were taken in custody. Peverill made his escape from the city, but was captured this morning at three o'clock in Anacostia by the Washington police. He was brought back here today by Officer Ferguson.

Waters was given a preliminary hearing this morning by Justice Caton. He was represented by Attorney Robinson Moncure. The state was represented by Samuel G. Brent, Commonwealth's Attorney, who asked for a continuance of ten days, which was granted. Waters made an application for bail, but it was held that such application should be made to the Corporation Court.

The officers made another haul today when they re-visited Finch's place. They brought away 30,000 cigarettes, many cigars, smoking and chewing tobacco, a pair of field glasses, and a miscellaneous assortment of tools, including a number of railway hydraulic jacks.

COAL DEALERS PROTEST

Meeting in Rooms of Chamber of Commerce Yesterday Afternoon

According to announcement made a few days ago, coal dealers and others interested met yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of taking steps towards entering their protest against the proposed increase in rates for the shipment of soft coal. It is alleged that the railroads intend to transport coal to certain eastern points for removal from Alexandria for the same rate they deliver it in Alexandria This discrimination is naturally objected to by Alexandria dealers and consumers, and it was determined by those who attended the meeting to appoint J. T. Preston, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, to represent Alexandria at the hearing to be held by the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington.

Dealers and consumers in Washington have entered their protest against new rates, they being sufferers also from the discrimination.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

"DEAD MAN APPEARS."

Mother Preparing For Funeral of Supposed Son, Faints When He Appears.

Hamilton, Ont., Nov. 21.— While relatives and friends surrounded a coffin in which lay the body of a young man identified as John Thompson, a victim of the recent storm on the Great Lakes, the real John Thompson rapped at the door and was admitted to the house. His mother collapsed was made seriously ill.

Young Thompson's father did not know on what boat his son was employed, and when he read of the finding of the body of a John Thompson, fireman on the lost steamer Carruthers, he went to Kettle Point and identified it as that of his son.

He explained that he had been in Montreal during the great storm and had just heard of his reported death.

Before going to his home Thompson stopped at a hotel conducted by James Duffy. Duffy, who had been at the Thompson home and seen the body there, fell in a faint, thinking he had seen a ghost.

CLUB SUSPENDS TURFMAN.

G. M. Johnson and his Jockey Lose Recognition for Alleged Crookedness.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 21.—G. M. Johnson the Tennessee turfman, owner of a string of high class horses, was suspended from further participation in racing at the Jamestown track Wdenesday. Jockey Frank Adams was also suspended.

The action of the stewards was based on the two races run by Mr. Johnson's gelding, J. H. Barr, Monday and Tuesday. On Monday J. H. Barr, fresh from Kentucky, did not beat York Lad, the class of the race. On Tuesday he won easily. Jockey Adams rode the horse on both occasions.

The stewards claim the horse could have won Monday. Turfmen say otherwise.

DOCTOR KILLS BROTHER.

Dr. H. H. Cox Slain in Petersburg, And His Slayer Claims "Unwritten Law."

Petersburg, Va., Nov. 21.—Dr. H. H. Cox, colored was shot and instantly killed at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday morning by his half-brother, Dr. W. H. Carter. The shooting took place at the home of the latter. Carter claims the "unwritten law," but his story does not agree with that told by his wife. The woman claims that at 12:30 o'clock she was awakened by some one trying to set fire to the house. She aroused her husband, who secured his gun, and, stepping outside the house fired at a form in the darkness. The first shot found its mark, and when the dead body was examined it was found to be that of Dr. Cox.

Dr. Carter and Dr. Cox had long been partners in a patent medicine enterprise, and were widely known throughout Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina. It is stated that bad blood had existed between them for the past two years. Both of them have stood well in this city.

Death of Judge Homes.

He was also for many years a member of the Democratic State Central Committee. He was a prominent leader in the work of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Irene B. Elwell, of Baltimore, was granted an absolute divorce Wednesday from Joseph H. Elwell, who, she said, "had a habit of pinching her fearfully."

JOHN BARRETT'S VIEWS ON MEXICO.

Director General John Barrett, of the Pan-American Union, deplored the lightness with which, he said, the Mexican situation is regarded, in a speech at Worcester, Mass., last night before the Pan-American Conference, at Clark University.

Among other things he said: "In the solution of the Mexican problem may be involved the future prestige, influence and trade of the United States with all the twenty Central and South American countries. He closed by saying:

"Let the people and press of the United States go slow. The crisis before the Spanish war was not fraught with such danger to the prestige, power, and commerce of the United States as the crisis the nation now faces. The settlement of the former problem actually involved the relations of the United States with only two countries—Spain and Cuba; the settlement of the latter problem may involve its standing with twenty countries with 70,000,000 people and $3,000,000,000 of foreign trade."

Mr. Barrett is probably one of the best posted men on South American affairs in the country. Several years ago he delivered an address in the Second Presbyterian Church in Alexandria on the republics south of the United States, in which he showed the growth of our neighbors. He at that time said our country had better be on the alert lest the United States in coming years might become the tail of the American kite.

Mr. Barrett, however, has a streak of the alarmist in him, which at times is manifest. The United States will not lose prestige to any serious extent by what is going on in Mexico.

When the Spanish-American war broke out some people whose glasses were supposed to penetrate as far into the future as those used by Mr. Barrett, saw the complete alienation of the Latin races, not only of Europe but all South America and the Philippine Islands. No such thing has come to pass.

PLANS FOR OPENING PANAMA CANAL.

Three points brought out prominently in a statement given to the press by the secretary of war, just returned from the Isthmus, with reference to the formal opening of the Panama canal deserve special attention and will, we believe, be received with very general satisfaction. The first of these is, in effect, that an American vessel is to be granted the honor of making the initial journey through the locks. The second is that this is to be a vessel engaged in peaceful pursuits. The third is, that Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, is to be aboard this vessel when it passes through the great waterway.

There has been considerable talk of the probability of the exploring ship, Fram, being granted the honor of first passage. There has been even more talk of sending a war ship, probably the Oregon, on the initial trip. The present plan is to send a vessel belonging to the Panama Railway Company—a practically unknown vessel—on this journey. The vessel in question is now plying between New York and Colon. By reason of its connection with the great work on the zone it has a prior right to consideration. It is engaged modestly in trade It represents better than could any battleship what the canal stands for. And it flies the stars and stripes.

The arrangement outlined by Secretary Garrison is not spectacular, it is not calculated to thrill, but it seems to us to be eminently fitting. The spectacular and the thrilling may be incorporated into the formal opening of the waterway in 1915, but let the canal be inaugurated, informally and officially, with dignity and simplicity. Whatever the vessel chosen for the initial trip may lack in distinction before hand will be more than made up when, flying the President's flag she shall bear the chief magistrate of the United States on one of the most remarkable and momentous excursions of all the ages.

ENTERTAINED AT NORFOLK.

Membership Campaign of Travelers' Protective Association.

Norfolk, Nov. 21.—Post "B," Travelers' Protective Association, is entertaining several of the distinguished officers of the association, including George H. Armstrong, of Philadelphia, national president; H. L. Harwood, of Richmond, State secretary, and Alex. McQuilkin, of Philadelphia, former member of the national board and now State secretary for Pennsylvania, are also in the party, which is making headquarters for the day at the office of Robert Davis, 208 Water street.

For a week past officials of T. P. A. have been making a canvass of the State rousing interest in the campaign for membership that is now on and it is expected that excellent results will be shown at the conclusion. Last night the officials went to Richmond, where they will spend two days.

Mr. McQuilkin, with State President W. H. Jones and J. O. Boatwright, have been for a week visiting various posts in the State. Roanoke, Lynchburg, Danville, and Petersburg have been visited by them, while National President Armstrong and State Secretary Harwood have been giving their attention to Alexandria and the nothern section of the State.

Yesterday the members of the party were entertained at luncheon at the Virginia Club, where business discussion was combined with pleasure. Headquarters at the office of Mr. Davis has been crowded all day with T. P. A. members, calling upon the visiting officials and pledging themselves to renewed efforts in behalf of the association.

Had Lung Trouble and Expected to Die

With the civilized world anxiously seeking a specific for Lung Trouble, the number of recoveries brought about through the use of Eckman's Alterative, a medicine for Throat and Lung Troubles, is attracting universal attention. For fifteen years Eckman's Alterative has been used and the reports of recoveries in many supposed hopeless cases indicate that this medicine is doing a vast amount of good. Read this:—

33 B St., Keyser, W. Va.

"Gentlemen: I was taken sick in November, 1908, with a very bad cold and dizzy spells. The doctor then pronounced my case as Malaria Fever. I grew steadily worse. Had two consultations held over me, and the verdict was that the fever had affected my lungs and that my case was hopeless; only gave me two months to live. My physician had tried most all kinds of treatment and none did me any good, so he asked my husband if he objected to him trying a proprietary medicine. So I began on your Alterative. I was in bed from November 20, 1908, until February 25, 1909, and was thought dying several times. Today I am healthier and stronger than ever."

(Signed) MRS. H. K. BRILEY.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in unbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

DREAMS BY WINDOW.

Negro Girl Sustains Scalp Lacerations—Man Survives 30-Foot Drop.

Richmond, Nov. 21.—Rebecca Epps a negro servant employed at the home of Chasie Trafieri, 500 West Main street, fell asleep while sitting in an open window Wednesday night about 6 o'clock. Pretty soon she began to dream. It was an ugly dream, full of all sorts of terrifying things. Stirring uneasily in the window seat, Rebecca lost her balance and fell outward, fifteen feet to the ground. Screams resulting from her rude awakening drew a crowd and some one telephoned for the ambulance from the city hospital. The doctor found she was suffering from severe scalp lacerations, and after bandaging her head advised that she be sent home.

James Harris, 39 years old, colored, who has already survived an fractured skull, fell thirty feet from a scaffolding Wednesday night and will live to tell his friends about it. He was picked up in an apparently dying condition and rushed to the city hospital. He is suffering fom concussion of the brain, but doctors at the hospital said he would recover.

TELEPHONE MAN KILLED.

Henry M. Mundy is Crushed to Death in Magic City.

Roanoke, Va., Nov. 21.—Henry M. Mundy, plant foreman of the Virginia-Tennessee Telephone company, was killed yesterday morning while attempting to catch a train as it pulled out of the yards here. He was on his way to Radford. His left leg was broken and there was a deep cut in his back.

Mr. Mundy had been in the telephone company's employ fifteen years.

Two farmhands, arrested on suspicion of knowing something about the disappearance of S. Lewis Pinkerton, tax collector of Edgemont township, near Media, Pa., yesterday confessed that they had murdered him and buried his body. The two prisoners, Roland S. Pennington and George Marsh, of Glenus Mills, Pa., were taken in an automobile to the woods where they said the body was hidden, and the police found it in a hole covered with leaves. Pinkerton, who was 26 years old, was last seen on November 7. At that time he had about $300 in his pockets and wore a ring. The money and ring were missing when the body was found.

MURDERED MAN FOUND.

Aged Negro at Abelinn Meets Death at Unknown Hands.

Charlotte C. H., Nov. 21.—Wrapped in a blanket and covered with dirt, the body of Sam Morton, an aged negro of this county, was found Wednesday in a ditch at Abeline, in the northern part of the county.

Morton disappeared a week ago last Tuesday. At the time of his disappearance it was found that his horse and a part of his corn crop had been stolen. In connection with this fact, it was recalled that last Thursday a negro man and woman brought a horse to Constable Moore at Phoenix, and offered it for sale. Moore agreed to buy the horse next day but the negroes had caught a train for parts unknown, leaving the animal.

Sheriff Jesse Priddy left for Abeline to investigate. An inquiry was held this afternoon.

FRANCE WILL SEND WARSHIPS

Accepts Invitation to Take Part in Canal Celebration.

Paris, Nov. 21.—The French Government has accepted President Wilson's invitation to send some representative French warship to Hampton Roads to join in the celebration of the opening of the Panama Canal.

Only informal consideration has been given by the French Ministry of Marine thus far to the number and type of vessels which are to compose the squadron. It has been decided, however, to send the best warships in the French Navy, representing the latest type now under construction.

The number of vessels will depend largely upon what the other powers, especially Great Britain, decide to do.

DON'T DOPE A PUNY CHILD.

Parents—don't give that puny, ailing, under-weight child any of those so-called "tonics" containing alcohol or dangerous drugs; such stuff won't give relief and health to grown people, let alone children. Its purpose is to stimulate for a short time after each dose just as whiskey or morphine does thus making you believe it is doing real good.

Give that child something that will really build it up—replenish the waste tissues—feed the stunted, dwarfed, puny muscles—make it lively, strong, well—full of the animal spirits children are meant by nature to have. Give it Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion is wholesome, nourishing, free from alcohol and dangerous drugs. It's the real nerve, blood and body builder. It does the work it is planned to do better than any other medicine we know of, and our faith in it is so great that we not only urge you to use it and give it to your children—but we guarantee that it will do all we say, or cost you nothing.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion should be given to children who catch cold easily. Begin right now, and use it to build up the child's system to such strong health that it can resist cold, croup, grippe, bronchitis, catarrh, pneumonia, and other cold weather diseases. You who are weak and rundown, and you who are well now, but are liable to suffer from various cold weather ailments, use Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion to get and keep well and strong. For the tired-out, rundown, nervous, emaciated or debilitated—the convalescing — growing children—aged people—it is a sensible aid to renewed strength, better spirits, glowing health.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion—king of the celebrated Rexall Remedies—is for freedom of sickness of you and your family. You'll be as enthusiastic about it as we are when you have noted its pleasant taste, its strengthening, invigorating, building-up, disease-preventing effects. If it does not help you, your money will be given back to you without arguments. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores in the United States, Canada and Great Britain. Wm. P. Taylor, 616 King street, Alexandria, Va.

Shot Found in Appendix.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 21.—Two of the grains of shot with which Ruben Ulrich, of Sellins Grove, killed a rabbit a week ago, have been removed from the appendix of his wife at the Harrisburg Hospital, where she is.

Mrs. Ulrich ate a portion of the rabbit, swallowing the shot.

Appendicitis following. Mrs. Ulrich is rapidly recovering.

Frank Herndon, a lad bitten by a horse said to have been suffering from rabies about two years ago, was bitten in practically the same spot several days ago by a mad dog at the home of his uncle, James Cox, near Woodlawn, Fairfax county.

"NO DARK MEAT HERE"

Cried the Thanksgiving turkey being served under an electric light. There's no darkness anywhere with such a light. It's so brilliant, so convenient, so movable. And the new Tungsten lamps makes electric light as cheap as the old time tallow dip considering the amount of light given. We will prove it if you will let us.
